

Fourth Edition.
THE LATEST
CHRISTIANCY SCANDAL.

More Rumors of a Startling Sensational Nature.

National Associated Press to the Star.

CHICAGO, March 26.—The Daily Telegraph to-day has a long article on the Christiancy family, alleging that the Senator was nearly ruined by his four drunken sons, and that the recent trouble with his young wife was due to the influence which his oldest son, Victor, has over her.

That after the Senator brought her home to Michigan she yielded to the advances of her step-son and fell. That having won his step-mother's love he carried her picture and is so insane over its beauty as to hawk it about the saloons of Leavenworth. It is also alleged that Mrs. Christiancy has contributed to his support.

BEN. BUTTERWORTH WILL ORATE. Special to the Star.

JESSIE RAYMOND LEAVES TOWN.

The notorious Jessie Raymond, Senator Hill's Nemesis, left Washington last night. It is alleged that she and those who instigated the blackmail hoax became frightened at the turn the affair has taken and want to drop it.

THEY ARE HUNGRY.

National Associated Press to the Star. WASHINGTON, D. C., March 26.—Sitting Bulls Indians, who have arrived in good numbers at two of the Northwest Agencies, propose to surrender and give up their arms and ponies if the United States Government will subsidize them. They are hungry. Secretary Schurz can not feed them as there is no appropriation which is available for that purpose. He has called the attention of the War Department to the matter. The only way the Indians could be nourished now would be by the War Department.

Their surrender could then be accepted, and an appropriation for them might be made. Neither the War nor Interior Departments, however, are very anxious for the return of these Indians. When the Ute difficulty was on, the Sioux in Canada sent word to Secretary Schurz that if he wanted any assistance they would come down and clean out the Utes. The Utes and Sioux have long been enemies.

SILVER PURCHASE.

The Treasury Department purchased to-day 445,000 ounces of fine silver for delivery at the Philadelphia, New Orleans and San Francisco Mints.

AFRAID OF THE POTATO BUG.

The U. S. Consul at Christiania, Norway, informs the State Department that owing to the fears of the potato bug the importation of potatoes into Norway from this country will be prohibited until the close of the year 1885.

IRISH RELIEF SHIP.

Secretary Thompson has sent the necessary instructions to Commander Potter, of the United States Navy, to proceed in command of United States steamship Constellation, as soon as her cargo is loaded, to Kingston, Ireland, and there deliver the cargo to the Relief Committee for disposition at their discretion, and to make known to the Committee that this cargo of provisions is contributed by a few generous-hearted citizens of the United States to relieve the wants of the suffering people of Ireland, whose condition has aroused extraordinary sympathy in the American mind.

DONNELLY-WASHBURN CONTEST.

The Committee of Elections adjourned again to-day without reaching a vote on the contested election case of Donnelly vs. Washburn. The vote is stayed off on one pretext and another because of the indications thrown out by Speaker, of Georgia, and Clark, of New Jersey, that they will vote with the Republicans. Should they finally determine to do so Washburn would retain his seat. Probably a vote will be taken on Tuesday, no matter what the result may be.

WHITTHORNE'S WORDS.

Seymour, He Says, is the Strongest Democrat.

Special to the Star.

NASHVILLE, TENN., March 26.—Congressman Whitthorne, of Tennessee, arrived this morning from Washington. In an interview with your correspondent he said: "Seymour was regarded at Washington as the strongest man whose name has been mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for the Presidency. Seymour can carry New York and Tilden can not. The Mahon party in Virginia and the Kelly faction in New York would not vote for Tilden, so these two States would be lost if the sage of Gramercy Park were nominated. As against Grant Hancock would likely prove the most acceptable to the Democrats if Seymour is not a winner at the National Convention at Cincinnati. Grant can receive the Republican nomination if he desires it. Next to Grant Blaine seems to have the strongest following."

Being asked his opinion of the scandalous charge against Senator Hill, of Georgia, he answered that he believed it was a plot hatched up by the Republicans to blacken his character. Such is the general impression at the National Capital.

The present session of Congress will be short, nearly all party and political questions being disposed of, and the business remaining on hand will be concluded as soon as possible.

BARTON BOUNCED

Young Murderer Hanged in Missouri To-day.

Other Candidates For Hempen Honors.

WM. BARTON'S EXIT.

Special to the Star. ST. LOUIS, March 26.—To-day is the day fixed for the execution of William Barton, colored, at St. Charles, for the murder of James Chatterback, a young and highly esteemed farmer, some thirteen months ago, near St. Charles. When Barton was captured, after the commission of his crime, the many friends of the murdered man were restrained with great difficulty from lynching him. An application was made to the Governor on Wednesday in Barton's behalf, but he declined to interfere, and all the chances are that Barton will hang to-day.

St. Charles, Mo., March 26.—Wm. Barton, colored, was hanged here this morning for the murder of James Chatterback, white, in February, 1879, on a farm about ten miles below town. They were employed with others shucking corn, when Chatterback and he quarreled. He got a gun from the house adjoining and while Chatterback was sweeping the porch of their bachelor quarters he was riddled with buckshot. Barton fled, but was subsequently captured in Cass County by Sheriff Knezel. He claimed to be under 16 years, but this did not save him, as the law exempting minors from capital punishment was adjudged not to apply to murder.

Barton was well defended. He became a Catholic and Fathers Gealand and Miller attended to his spiritual wants. He said on the scaffold that he trusted in the mercy of God, that he was prepared to die, and that he had no ill will against any man. He was born in Mississippi. He died gently in ten minutes after the fatal drop. About two thousand people witnessed the execution, notwithstanding the showers that came at frequent intervals during the morning. The drop fell at 7:30 a. m. sharp.

THE GOLDEN GATE.

Important Supreme Court Decision—Chinatown Getting Alarmed.

National Associated Press to the Star.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 26.—A very important decision has been rendered by the Supreme Court regarding the new State Constitution. The Judges decide that the Constitution is self-operative, and that no additional legislation is necessary to direct the State Assessors to assess all property and ascertain the intent of the statutes and existing laws.

The bearing of the decision is of extreme importance on all other provisions of the constitution.

The Board of Health of this city have taken no further action towards the enforcement of the health ordinances in Chinatown. The policy of the Board will now be to proceed against the proper Ward officers in those sections where the nuisances exist, and to avoid, so far as possible, any wholesale arrests of individuals. In point of fact, such a policy is rendered absolutely necessary by the present overcrowded condition of the City Prison. The Chinese, however, are thoroughly alarmed.

Additional Congress.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—The motion to dispense with the morning hour was rejected, 121 to 81, a two-thirds vote being required.

Mr. Robertson, of Louisiana, rose to a question of privilege and said that yesterday he voted in the affirmative on all propositions because he wanted to avoid any future conflict as to a reference, but he was no protectionist and his vote was not to be construed as signifying that he was opposed to the revision of the tariff or that he was in favor of the existing tariff laws.

Mr. McLean and Mr. F. Wood also denied that any significance could be attached to their affirmative votes yesterday on discharging the Committee on Revision of the Laws, and on referring Mr. Townsend's bill to the Ways and Means Committee.

The House then proceeded to the regular order, the consideration of private business, and the Speaker ruled that the business to come up first was that to extend the patent of Wm. G. Budlong for an invention for pegging shoes.

Pending the discussion of the bill, the morning hour expired.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the private calendar.

Buried Alive.

Two white men and one negro killed by a boiler explosion near Columbus, Ga.

Wainwright, The Elegant Ruffian.

(London Daily News.)

A collection of the essays and criticisms of the notorious Thomas Griffiths Wainwright, which has been made by Mr. Carew Hazlitt, by careful search in old magazines and papers, forms a very curious volume, just published by Messrs. Reeves and Turner. The history of this elegant and accomplished ruffian, who obtained access to the best society in London sixty years since, and secured the personal esteem of Lamb, Hunt, Talfourd and numerous other distinguished literary contemporaries, while he was secretly obtaining funds for his luxurious living by poisoning unsuspecting victims, is well known to most readers. It will be remembered that he is the acknowledged original of Varney in Lord Lytton's "Lucrèce," and the hero of Charles Dickens' little story "Hunted Down."

Anecdotes of Wainwright's extraordinary career are common enough, but hitherto the literary talent of "Janus Weathercock," as this facile magazine writer was wont to call himself, has been rather a tradition than a fact in evidence. The essays in this book, which relate to fine art exhibitions, literature and the drama, exhibit undoubted cleverness and taste, but their chief interest lies in the indications that they afford of the character of the writer. Their enormous egotism and studied airs of dandyism are, perhaps, their most striking features. It is some relief to find that the ingrained heartlessness and meanness of the writer's personal character are here so unmistakably impressed even on the best specimens of his literary work that we feel by mere internal evidence the scoundrel ought to have been detected. Herein we seem to recognize at once the convict, who, at the close of his career of deception, could write to an acquaintance in these words: "They think me a desperado! Me! the companion of poets, philosophers, artists and musicians, a desperado! You will smile at this—no, I think you will feel for the man, educated and reared as a gentleman, but now the mate of vulgar ruffians and country bumpkins."

Barnum's tattooed Greek gets angry when his legs are pinched to see if the color will come off. If the offender is a woman, he gazes at her savagely and quits the platform; but when a man at New Haven undertook to do it, he gave him a knock-down blow.

The British navy is becoming a school for royalty. Not only are the two sons of the Prince of Wales midshipmen, but Ernest, the thirteen-year-old son of the Grand Duke of Hesse and the late Princess Alice, is about to join. Queen Victoria is said, however, to be rather indifferent to the navy, taking more interest in the army.

CITY CONVENTION.

Meeting of the Republican Executive Committee.

Appointment of Committees and Adjournment to the Turner Hall.

The Republican City Convention was held to-day at the Hamilton County Republican Club Rooms, corner of Vine and Allison streets.

The call was out for 10 o'clock, but it took some time to seat the delegates, who were present to the number of 267.

Mr. John D. Davis, Chairman of the City Executive Committee, opened the Convention.

There was a great deal of uncertainty prevailing until this morning as to whether or not and where the Convention was to be held. This was due to a statement of the Apportionment Committee that the place had not been decided upon, but since the passage of the Ray School Board Bill the holding of the Convention was set for to-day.

It is also understood that, in view of the passage of the St. Hoffman Bounce Bill by the Legislature to-day, the Convention will make a nomination for City Comptroller. The candidates principally spoken of for this place are Mr. James M. Waters, Deputy under County Auditor Cappellet, and J. M. Ray and Colonel Lew. Weitzel. Messrs. Spiegel, Machle, Stuart and Reichert were appointed Sergeants-at-Arms to seat the Delegates.

S. N. Maxwell and George Emig were nominated for Temporary Chairman. Mr. L. S. Staley's name was presented, but withdrawn.

Mr. Wm. Schroeder was appointed teller. The ballot for Temporary Chairman resulted: Emig, 87; Maxwell, 175.

Mr. S. N. Maxwell was declared elected. E. O. Eschley was elected Temporary Secretary by acclamation.

A resolution was adopted to appoint three Committees on Credentials, on Permanent Organization and on Order of Business.

The Committees are as follows, beginning with the First Ward and proceeding to the Twenty-fifth in regular order:

"Resolved, That the Public Schools of Cincinnati have been a source of untold blessing to our city in the education of our sons and daughters, and in their efficiency and benefits, they have achieved a world-wide renown, and that we will watch the interests of our public schools with a jealous care, since our Legislature has given us a golden opportunity to still further increase their efficiency; therefore be it

"F. W. STEIGELMAN, Chairman.

"FRANK J. JONES, Secretary." C. F. Hayman entered a protest against nominating a City Comptroller unless a Convention be held further on, unless word comes in that the Auditor's office is abolished.

The matter was laid on the table.

NOMINATIONS FOR SCHOOL BOARD.

The first ballot resulted in the nomination of the following 134 votes being necessary to a choice: Theodore Horstman, 158 votes; F. S. Spiegel, 171 votes; Samuel Bailey, 216 votes; Dr. Underhill, 192 votes
